Dustin Evans & Goodtimes confirmed as Saturday Night
Entertainment at the NRA Rodeo Finals

Billings, MT (January 3, 2010) — The Saturday night entertainment is now confirmed for the final concert of the Northern Rodeo Association Finals. Dustin Evans and Goodtimes will thrill and entertain the crowd after the conclusion of the NRA Finals Saturday night.

This rising country band is expected to put on an exciting and entertaining concert with their country songs mixed with a little rock'n roll. Dustin Evans and Goodtimes are comprised of a group of laid back talented musicians with a passion for country music and entertaining. Since the band has relocated to Nashville, TN their popularity has grown while also producing 4 albums. "Dustin Evans and Goodtimes are known for putting on an energetic and crowd thrilling performance which is a great way to finish The NRA Finals," says Ty Yost, President of Yost Events and producer of The NRA Finals. "This is a great event for people to enjoy a championship rodeo and a free concert, a night filled with excitement and amazing entertainment."

The drummer for Goodtimes Ned LeDoux is the son of the famous country singer Chris LeDoux. Their music is a laid-back approach to the coolest songs in country and rock'n roll allows them to easily grab the attention of everyone in the audience. Some of their well known songs include "Here", "Home Away From Lonely", and "Good Ol' Days to Come."

The NRA Rodeo Finals will be held at The Rimrock Auto Arena on February 18-20 and tickets are now on sale starting at $15. Tickets can be purchased at the Metra Park box office or by calling 406-256-2422 or toll free 800-366-3588. The concert is free with the purchase of your Rodeo ticket.
