The Kentucky HeadHunters Confirmed as Friday Nights Entertainment At The NRA Rodeo Finals

Billings, MT (January 4, 2010)— Yost events have announced that The Kentucky HeadHunters will be performing for the 2010 Northern Rodeo Association Finals. The Grammy Award-winning country rock band will be performing Friday night.

The NRA Finals are set for February 18-20 at the Rimrock Auto Arena in Billings MT. The three-night event consists of thrilling rodeo performances followed by a free concert on the arena floor. “The success and excitement we achieved last year has set the bar high but we are looking to surpass that with this years gripping rodeo and concerts,” says Ty Yost, the NRA Finals producer. “We are excited again to offer an excellent championship rodeo, a Grammy Award-winning country rock band, all for an affordable price to our rodeo and country fans.”

The Kentucky HeadHunters are a Grammy Award-winning country rock band, which redefined country music in the 90’s featuring a double platinum debut album Pickin’ On Nashville. Since their debut album, they have released 7 other albums and 20 singles that include hits such as “Oh Lonesome Me,” “Walk Softly on This Heart of Mine,” “Rock n Roll Angel,” and “Dumas Walker.”

The NRA Rodeo Finals will be held at The Rimrock Auto Arena on February 18-20 and tickets are now on sale starting at $15. Tickets can be purchased at the Metra Park box office or by calling 406-256-2422 or toll free 800-366-3588. The concert is free with the purchase of your Rodeo ticket.
