Electric Eye assignments

The following barrel racers are responsible for getting the electric eye to these rodeos and also for setting it up or making arrangements to set it up and making sure the barrels are marked properly.

Be sure all performances and slack are assigned. Call the NRA office on Thursday to find out who is barrel racing in each performance. If you agree to set up the eye at a performance, do it.

Judges, timers, secretaries and others don't appreciate having to set up the timer instead of handling their own tasks. Your cooperation in this matter is greatly appreciated.

OOPS, Check the GVW

(Editor's Note: We ran this blip last month but had the GVW wrong. IF you're pulling over 26,000 you are required to have a Commercial driver's license.)

Remember Rodeo Contestants: As of April 1, many state laws have been changed. When entering another state and pulling horses, you must stop at the port of entry. (Idaho fine is $82.50 for failing to stop).

Annual equine import permits are required when you leave Montana with your horse and plan to return.

Some states require health certificates on livestock issued in the last 30 days; No Coggins required for Idaho, however, Wyoming does require that testing.

Also know that commercial driver's license are required if you're pulling over 26,000 GVW in Montana or 10,000 in Idaho. (A crew cab pickup with camper pulling four-horse trailer loaded is about 18,000 GVW.)

If you have questions on livestock permits, call the Montana Department of Livestock in Helena, 444-2976. Questions about commercial drivers license call the Department of Highways, GVW department, in Helena, 444-6131

Membership:

The following is a brief progress report of the new Judge's program. At the Spring board of director's meeting in Bozeman, the board approved the proposed Judge's program. A major part of that program was to conduct judge's conferences this spring.

To date, a total of four conferences have been held with 20 judges attending. The main objective of the conferences was to discuss consistency in decisions, controversial calls, and other isolated issues that may occur at rodeos.

The conferences were open to all NRA members, including contestants, judges, contractors, committee members, announcers, timers, secretaries, etc. Very few contestants attended. The contestants, committee members and others that attended added a great deal of input into the conferences. The success of these conferences lies in input of all involved, so feel free to drop a note to the NRA office or to me if you have a concern or suggestion.

Happy Trails

Deb Burghduff goes through great measures not to have to fry hamburgers at Karen Miller's Chuckwagon at the Broken Horn Stampede in Absarokee. Deb was roping at Absarokee Committeeman Jack and Rosina Hash's branding in May. Riding a colt, she was dragging a calf to the branding fire when things broke loose. The wreck was soon over but Deb suffered a compound fracture on her left foot. At the rodeo in Absarokee, she sat in the prominent pickup by the timed event gate with Esther Miller. She'll be on crutches until the middle of August.

Speaking of Karen Miller, she has retired from teaching after 25 years. Karen, you just don't look old enough! She said she's going to spend her retirement studying the real three 'Rs in life: Riding, Roping and Romance. (That last one is with Ed, isn't it?)

The Broken Horn Stampede committee ordered coats that arrived with a small typo in the printing. The coats said instead The Broken Horse Stampede.

Judging from the Jacobs bucking stock at the June rodeo, the broncs at that three-day rodeo were far from Broken horses. Nice rodeo, Joe, Eddie, Karen, Jack and gang.

The Nahrgang family has increased in size this spring! Don and Tammy had a baby girl, Megan Marie, on Feb. 12. She joins three brothers: Taylor, Trey and Troy.

Don's younger brother Joe and Lisa (Schockley) Nahrgang welcomed Timer Scott on March 6.

The baby boy born to Marty and Julie Penrod on March 30 was named Lane Daniel. He weighed in at 6 lbs., 10 oz.

A couple of calf ropers really tied the knot this last month. Jay Hahnkamp hitched up with Denise Anderson in Late May. Worden roper Dan Eddleman married Sandra Jones (originally from Cora Bay, CA. we were told.)

If anyone has news they would like in the NRA News, please call the NRA office or send a birth, wedding or death announcement. Please don't rely on Jann or Becky to glean the information from hearsay. We hear lots of gossip and you probably appreciate that we don't print everything we hear. Send us the facts and we'll put them in this column.

Dear NRA;

Here's a note I found on my table one day after (NRA bronc riding director) Paul Solberg had been at my place.

Thought I'd share it with readers. Guess this will teach me to be home when Solberg comes around.

He came over to get a bull to turn with his heifers and as you can see he made himself at home.

Salute Old Glory when she passes by

The epitome of an American salute is a horse-back rider carrying Old Glory. Whether it's a 4-H horse show, the county fair parade or charging into a rodeo arena, that stars and stripes unfurling over a racing horse gives everyone a thrill.

But rodeo contestants are apathetic. At last weekend's rodeo, contestants were too busy saddling up, warming up and visiting with friends to pay tribute to our flag and our freedoms.

It gives fans a tainted image of this sport when the contestants are too busy to stop and salute the flag. In a baseball game, all players step out for the National Anthem. At a track meet, runners stop their stretching and warm ups to salute.

Rodeo contestants must show the same courtesy and reverence.

As Old Glory unfurls in the July 4th breeze, take a moment and realize how truly lucky we are. And in appreciation of the values and freedoms this country offers, remove your hat. Stop talking. Sing the National Anthem. Pay tribute to this country.

In recognition of Independence Day, here's a short poem reprinted from Ann Landers Column. No credit is given to the author.

REMEMBER ME?

Some people call me Old Glory, others call me the Star Spangled Banner, but whatever they call me, I am your flag, the flag of the United States of America.

I remember some time ago people lined up on both sides of the street to watch the parade and naturally, I was always there, proudly waving in the breeze.

When your daddy saw me coming, he immediately removed his hat and placed it over his heart. Remember?

And you, I remember you standing there straight as a soldier. You didn't have a hat but your were giving the right salute.

Remember your little sister? Not to be outdone, she was saluting the same as you, with her hand over her heart. Remember?

What happened? I'm still the same old flag. Oh, I have added a few more stars since you were a boy, and a lot more blood has been shed since those parades of long ago. But I don't feel as proud as I used to. When I come down your street, you just stand there with your hands in your pockets. I may get a glance but then you look away.

I see the children running around and shouting. They don't seem to know who I am. I saw one man take off his hat and look around. He didn't see anybody else with his hat off so he quickly put his back on. Is it a sin to be patriotic? Have you forgotten what I stand for and where I've been? Anzio, Normandy, Omaha Beach, Guadalcanal, Korea and Vietnam.

Take a look at memorial honor rolls some time. Look at the names of those who never came back in order to keep this republic free. One nation under God. When you salute me, you are actually saluting them.

Well, it won't be long until I'll be coming down your street again. So, when you see me, stand straight, place your right hand over your heart. I'll salute you by waving back. And I'll know that you remembered.

I would like to thank all the kids and parents who attended my breakaway school at Miller's arena. Good Luck this summer.

Congratulations to:

RELEASE AND AGREEMENT NOT TO SUE

In consideration of being allowed to participate in Northern Rodeo Association sanctioned events and membership in the Association, I and my heirs, successors, personal representatives and next of kin, hereby RELEASE, WAIVE, DISCHARGE and agree to HOLD HARMLESS AND INDEMNIFY the Northern Rodeo Association, the rodeo committees, stock contractors, sponsors, arena operations or owners, their agents, representatives (collectively referred to as the NRA) from all liability to me and my personal representatives, heirs, successors, and next of kin from and all claims and liability for all loss of damage, and any claim of damages therefore on account of any injury to my person including death or damage to my property while I am utilizing NRA facilities or participating in NRA events.

I, hereby represent to the NRA that I understand that THERE ARE CERTAIN RISKS OF SERIOUS INJURY AND DEATH inherent in participating in rodeo events and any related activities. I realize conditions of the rodeo arena change from time to time and may become more hazardous, that rodeo animals are dangerous and unpredictable and there is INHERENT DANGER in rodeo which I appreciate and voluntarily assume because I choose to participate in such events. I make this choice even though I have observed or participated in events of this kind in the past and know conditions, facilities, rodeo animals, and other rodeo contestants and participants pose a danger to me. I recognize and expressly agree to assume the entire risk of any and all accidents or personal injury including serious paralysis or death which I might suffer during my participation in said events.

I further COVENANT AND AGREE NOT TO SUE THE NRA for any injury, damages or death which occur as a result of my participation in said events and any claim or damage therefore. I understand that this document maybe treated as a complete defense to any legal action I might bring against the NRA for any injuries or other damages I might suffer.

I understand and agree this RELEASE AND AGREEMENT NOT TO SUE extends to any and all claims I may have, specially including but not limited to, claims arising out of participation in said events, claims with respect to the design, manufacture, repair, or maintenance of the facilities or equipment which I will be using, or with respect to the conditions, qualification, instructions, rules or procedures under which my use of said facilities or equipment are conducted or from any other cause.

I UNDERSTAND AND AGREE THIS RELEASE AND AGREEMENT NOT TO SUE extends to ACCIDENT, INJURY, OR DEATH OCCURRING DURING THE TERM OF MY MEMBERSHIP IN THE NRA. Any subsequent Releases and agreement I might sign in the future shall amplify, but shall in no way limit, the provisions of this document.

I further state and certify that I have carefully read the foregoing Release, know the contents thereof and sign this Release and Agreement Not to Sue as a free and voluntary act. I am not relying on any statements of representations of any party released hereby. I UNDERSTAND THIS IS A RELEASE OF ALL CLAIMS.

NRA rulings and procedures on Trade-outs/ Turnouts

All NRA rodeos are tradeout rodeos unless advertised as "NO TRADEOUTS."

Trades: A contestant may trade positions/performances of competition with another contestant at anytime after entries close, provided it is before the draw for that event.

If a trade is completed before callbacks close, trades are handled through central entry and may continue to be handled up until 10 a.m. the day following callbacks.

After 10 a.m. the day after callbacks, all trades are handled through the NRA office.

Both parties involved in the trade must call the NRA office and confirm the trade.

Trades can be made at the rodeo upon consent of both parties involved, before the draw in that event. Both judges and rodeo secretary must be notified of trade by both parties.

Note: A new rule passed at April 1992 board meeting states timed-event draw must be made in presence of the rodeo secretary and can be made a minimum of two hours before the performance. We bring this to your attention so contestants plan to make trades earlier.

Turnouts: As stated in the rule book, if a contestant turns out at a rodeo, the fine will be equal to the entry fees. The NRA has rules which can soften the blow of an expensive turnout.

1. Notified turnout: If you know before 3 p.m. the last working day before the first performance of a rodeo that you will not be competing at that rodeo, call the NRA office. You will be responsible for your entry fees plus a $20 fine. The fine is $20 (plus all entry fees) no matter how many events you are entered in. You must have your entry fees included in the payoff for that rodeo in which you will not be competing, so alternative ways to get your fees to the rodeo need to be considered.

2. If it is too late to notify, you can find someone who will pay your fees at the rodeo for you and notify the secretary/judge/contractor that you will not be there, your fine is half your entry fee (plus your entry fee).

Contractors/judges/secretaries/spectators/announcer and fellow contestants appreciate knowing if you will not be there, thus an animal will not be drawn and this will eliminate unnecessary turnouts.

Best for last

Seldom is there a dull moment at the Ed and Karen Miller Ranch near Absarokee. Here, Ed runs the tractor while Darryl Lamb and Aussie-mate Terry Standing help install a new sign just in time for the Broken Horn Stampede. The woodwork was done by John Hanson, far right, of Roscoe. Karen reports it took two tractor buckets to hoist the sign into place.
