Official Publication of the Northern Rodeo Association

July 1993

Steer wrestling action at Forsyth Rodeo Days was hot and heavy, and Casper Schaffer's grit and determination, combined with his size, paint the perfect picture of a bull dogger. The 1993 NRA rodeo season is proving to be another successful summer, in terms of contestants, payoff amounts, and crowds.

From the crow's nest ...

From Tootie Rasmussen, Editor

Some very exciting things are happening in the world of rodeo this summer. The limited edition rodeo trading cards featuring the 1992 NRA champions will be available soon at a Pizza Hut near you. See the article and ad elsewhere in this issue.

The filming of a movie in Montana about rodeo people is the most exciting news yet. Matched bull riding and bronc riding will be presented at Livingston and Wilsall to provide the "real thing" in the rodeo world. See the ad on page one, and watch for more news on this.

Preserving the heritage of rodeo and our way of life here in the west has proved to be a full-time job for Friends of Rodeo Montana Executive Director Karen Miller, and she reports that the people most reluctant to help the cause are the rodeo contestants themselves.

These are the same people who also forget the "dress code" spelled out in the rule book about hat, boots, long sleeved shirts, and long pants. I guess you don't often see football players appearing on the football field without their uniform, or basketball players competing without a uniform. Yet, rodeo competitors appear in the arena before the rodeo performance, warming up their horses without their "uniform," donned in tank tops, caps, tennis shoes, no hats, or worse yet, visors, and the list goes on.

The rule book does not specify the exact time frame when you should be wearing your "uniform" except when competing, but common sense should prevail; you should know when the crowd is in the stands and watching, or when some impressionable tourist will be aware of the way you are dressed. Use your common sense; wear your "uniform" whenever you appear in or near the rodeo arena so a rule won't have to be written in the rule book.

NRA rodeo trading cards at Pizza Huts

Restaurant Management Company, doing business as Pizza Hut in Montana and Wyoming are proud to announce that they are coordinating, publishing and distributing the 1992 NRA champions on individual, full color trading cards

The first of the Limited Edition cards were issued beginning the week of July 18, and a new card will be available each week. The cards will be distributed throughout Montana and Wyoming exclusively at Pizza Hut restaurants.

The 12 cards will be available, with purchase, from the week of July 18 through Oct. 10, featuring an NRA Champion each week. Each card will carry the LIMITED EDITION mark, full color picture of the respective champion, complete rodeo competition statistics on the back and the logos of NRA, Pizza Hut, and Pepsi.

The limited edition, full color, cowboy and cowgirl championship trading cards with complete statistics are available only from Pizza Hut restaurants, and only in the following Montana communities: Anaconda, Butte, Bozeman, Livingston, Laurel, Billings, Hardin, Miles City, Glendive, Glasgow and, Sidney, and in the following Wyoming communities: Gillette, Sheridan, Powell, Cody, Jackson Hole, Worland, Thermopolis, Lander and Casper.

The following NRA champions are each featured on a trading card: Mary Salmond, all-around cowgirl and ladies breakaway roping champion; Kera Washburn, ladies barrel racing champion; Guy Howell, team roping champion; Flint Rasmussen, funnyman of the year; Tayvee Taylor, junior all-around champion; Kent Robbins, saddle bronc riding champion; Bob Schall, all-around cowboy and bareback riding champion; Chris Witcher, calf roping champion; Charlie Briggs, steer wrestling champion, and Marty Penrod, bull riding champion.

The June issue of the NRA News included an insert with the details on how to obtain the trading cards, and Pizza Hut and Pepsi are offering an exclusive offer to NRA members to obtain the cards.

Watch for these trading cards and collect all 12. Be sure and thank the Pizza Huts and Pepsi for participating in the promotion.

MontanaFair Has Changed!

MontanaFair at Billings has made some important changes this year that NRA cowboys and cowgirls need to be aware of.

First of all, special arrangements have been made for specific rodeo contestant parking. No longer will contestants park in the lower lot (on the side of the hill, or wherever parking attendants put you previously).

Contestants must enter the grounds through Gate One, which is located immediately off the new Lockwood Bridge on the Hardin Highway (by the race horse barns).

If you are coming from the interstate, take the Lockwood Exit #452, cross the bridge, and take a right into Gate 1 (on the southeast edge of the fair grounds). Vehicle parking will be located adjacent to the fenced area for race track parking.

CAUTION: Do not enter Gate One but turn to the right, and about 50 yards, turn left into the special parking area.

The rodeo office will also be located by this gate and will be so signed.

Access to the METRA Arena will be from this backside by the Rodeo Office and SuperBarn. Only walk-in and horseback traffic will be allowed through the access gate. No vehicles will be allowed.

Wristbands will be issued by the Rodeo Secretary for CONTESTANTS ONLY, and wristbands must be worn. Only wristbands will be allowed through the METRA access gate, so as companions are considered paying customers and must go through the gate where tickets are sold. The closest ticket gate is Gate Two. (see map).

METRA access gate will be open to contestants one-half hour before each performance and slack. Your designated warm-up area is the straight-away at the back of the starting gate on the race track. This area is also so noted on the map. The warm-up area will be open one hour before performance time and one hour before slack.

Rodeo Office will open at 5 p.m. each evening and 8 a.m. the morning of slack.

Slack will be held at 10 a.m. on Friday, August 20. If additional slack is needed it will be held after the performance on Thursday, Aug. 19.

The MontanaFair features no contestant preference in selection of performance, no drawouts, and no tradeouts. Permits are accepted in only bareback and saddle bronc riding only, and are not accepted bull riding and in timed events. Local entries will be limited to residents of Yellowstone, Stillwater and Carbon counties, and fees for local entries must be paid prior to the rodeo.

Entries open Thursday, August 5 from 10 a.m. to 6:30 p.m. with Call Backs on Friday, August 6 from noon - 6:30 p.m., both through Big Sky Rodeo Central Entry, 406-428-2205. Added money for each event is $1,000, with $75 entry fees.

HOW TO ENTER NRA RODEOS THROUGH BIG SKY RODEO CENTRAL ENTRY DIAL 406-428-2205

Entries will be open from 10 a.m. to 6:30 p.m. every Monday. Call backs will be Tuesday from 12 noon to 6:30 p.m. unless otherwise advertised. Charge is $3.50

Give the following information when entering a rodeo:

1. Name of rodeo
2. Your NRA card number
3. Your name
4. The event or events you wish to enter
5. Preferences you have on which performance you wish to work.
6. Name of buddy or buddies — two per event, six total.
7. If multi-rodeo weekend, give information for each rodeo you wish to enter.
8. Call back Tuesday between 12 noon and 6:30 p.m. (unless otherwise advertised) to find out when you are up.
9. Keep track of the confirmation number the operator gives you, both on entering the rodeo and calling back. Every conversation, both entries and call backs, is recorded on tape, and each person calling is given a verification number for that conversation. YOU MUST HAVE THIS VERIFICATION NUMBER IF THERE ARE ANY QUESTIONS REGARDING YOUR ENTRY OR CALL BACK.

ANY CONTESTANT WHO DRAWS OUT OF A RODEO AFTER RECEIVING HIS FIRST PREFERENCE OF PERFORMANCES AT A GIVEN RODEO OR RODEOS WILL BE FINED $20 PER INFRACTION.

Late call back number is 428-2398. If you have to use the late call back number, you will be charged an additional $2.50, so please call during regular hours.

Trade-outs and Turnouts

All NRA rodeos are trade-out rodeos unless advertised as "NO TRADE OUTS."

Trades: A contestant may trade positions/performances of competition with another contestant at anytime after entries close, provided it is before the draw for that event.

If a trade is completed before callbacks close, trades are handled through central entry and may continue to be handled up until 10 a.m. the day following callbacks.

After 10 a.m. the day after callbacks, all trades are handled through the NRA office.

Both parties involved in the trade must call the NRA office and confirm the trade.

Trades can be made at the rodeo upon consent of both parties involved before the draw in that event. Both judges and rodeo secretary must be notified of trade by both parties.

Note: a new rule passed at April 1992 board meeting states timed-event draw must be made in presence of the rodeo secretary and can be made a minimum of two hours before the performance. We bring this to your attention so contestants plan to make trades earlier.

Turnouts: As stated in the rule book, if a contestant turns out at a rodeo, the fine will be equal to the entry fees. The NRA has rules which can soften the blow of an expensive turnout.

1. Notified turnout: If you know before 3 p.m. the last working day before the first performance of a rodeo that you will not be competing at that rodeo, call the NRA office. You will be responsible for your entry fees plus a $20 fine. The fine is $20 (plus all entry fees) no matter how many events you are entered in. You must have your entry fees included in the payoff for that rodeo in which you will not be competing, so alternative ways to get your fees to the rodeo need to be considered.

2. If it is too late to notify, you can find someone who will pay your fees at the rodeo for you and notify the secretary, judge, and contractor that you will not be there, your fine is half your entry fee (plus your entry fee).

Contractors, judges, secretaries, spectators, announcer and fellow contestants appreciate knowing if you will not be there, thus an animal will not be drawn and this will eliminate unnecessary turnouts.

Letter to the editor

Dear Editor;

Thanks to Stan Rasmussen for announcing the Break-Mania at the Miller Arena June 13.

He donated his time and talent, and he also figured the payoff and calculated the winners.

I have heard that some announcers won't even bother to announce slack at some rodeos. Lucky us to have Stan!

Sincerely,
Ed and Karen Miller

Notice

NOTICE: Barrel racers, judges, announcers: the NRA does not allow exhibition runs in the barrel racing. Don't ask, please. If you want to run barrels at an NRA rodeo, enter the rodeo. We appreciate your cooperation.

Top rodeo bull lost

Don Jacobs lost one of his best bulls during the Big Timber rodeo June 25 and 26, and the media had a hay day with the story, with one-sided information and biased reporting being spread across the state on the wires of the Associated Press, a week after the incident took place.

"Dirty Dingus McGee," reportedly on his way to a PRCA stock contractor for the ripe sum of $7,000, went "bonkers" after the rodeo on Friday night, escaped onto the Interstate Highway, and had to be shot.

The AP story, and the one in the local Big Timber paper painted a picture of a bull escaping from the rodeo grounds immediately after the rodeo, running around town, charging people and cars, and two cowboys and the stock contractor (who wasn't named) chasing after him with guns, shooting him with a .22 pistol 75-100 times, and finally downing him with a .357 Magnum.

The story was written "according to the Sweet Grass County Sheriff's department," and no one else was contacted as to the facts, not even the stock contractor. The officers implied that they were willing to let the bull remain with a pasture full of cows until daylight, but said that the stock contractor chased him out of there.

Four days after the story appeared in statewide papers (which was one full week after the incident occurred) the Billings Gazette reporter who wrote the AP story apologized for her one-sided reporting. At press time it was not known if or when a correction would be printed.

Dick Lyman, pickup man for Jacobs Livestock Rodeo, painted a much different picture of the incident, saying that the bull escaped sometime after midnight, after pacing the fence and being "on the hook." They (the stock contractor and he) were awakened about 1:30 p.m. by the local rodeo chairman, Monte Finn, at their motel who notified them that the bull was out. Sheriff's Department officials said they had not seen the bull, but assisted the stock contractor and Lyman in finding him. Apparently the pasturefull of cows was not enough to attract the bull's attention, and the usually docile bull charged them, went through the pasture, ignoring the amorous cows, over the fence, and headed for the Super 8 Motel where he chased people up on their cars.

Realizing the bull was "crazy" and out of control, the group asked for help from the Sheriff. The bull charged Lyman's pickup, jumped the cattle guard onto the Interstate highway and the chase was on. The bull was finally shot by the Sheriff's department, but not with a puny .22, and not with 75-100 shots, according to Lyman.

The valuable bull was sacrificed before human lives were lost, but because of the story, it appears that much damage was done to the rodeo industry unnecessarily.

They're going to put you in the movies!

Major rodeo motion picture to be filmed in Montana

Big Truck Film Productions of Los Angeles and Bozeman, filming a major motion picture in Montana involving rodeo and rodeo people, have set up three matched bronc riding and bull riding competitions to gain footage for use in this movie. They are inviting all bull riders and saddle bronc riders to compete.

The matches will take place at Livingston on Aug. 25 and 26, beginning at 9 a.m., with Don Jacobs stock, and on Aug. 31, also at 9 a.m., at Wilsall using Dale Small stock.

Added money is $1,000 in each event at each location, with $100 entry fees and no stock charge. The matches are open to all cowboys, regardless of rodeo association affiliation, but are limited to 20 cowboys per event per match.

Entries for all matches will be taken on Tuesday, Aug. 17 from 4 p.m. until 7 p.m. Call Jann Parker, rodeo secretary, for these match rodeos, at 406-252-1122.

Each match may last to 8 to 10 hours due to filming requirements, so be prepared to sit around and wait.

Filming will also take place near Deer Lodge, Anaconda and Three Forks using Carpenter stock but with no matches.

The western, called "F.T.W.," is a love story about a woman with a criminal past, and a rodeo cowboy recently released from prison and trying to fit into society. Casting for main supporting actors was recently completed in Bozeman, and an open casting session will be announced later.

This film is in addition to four productions already filmed or still under way in Montana, and three others which will begin soon. They are "Iron Will, which is being filmed near West Yellowstone; "Return to Lonesome Dove," filming in the Butte and Billings areas throughout the summer; "Beethoven's 2nd," in Glacier National Park; "Holy Matrimony" in Great Falls; "The River Wild," starring Meryl Streep, in West Glacier and Libby areas, and a TV series called "Angel Falls," which has shot some scenes near Bozeman already this summer and will begin production later this month in Los Angeles.

Annual "Break-Mania" held at Absarokee

Francie Caufield of Park City triumphed over the cattle and the barrier and won the fifth annual Break-Mania at Miller's arena June 13, 1993 in Absarokee.

Francie was one of two ropers who caught all three of the tenacious calves even though she broke out on her first calf. Sally Jane Mosby of Bozeman also caught three head (ask her how many times she broke out) and finished in second place. Francie was 27.2 on three head and Sally Jane was 44.0 on three. It was well worth their efforts as they received $244 and $183 respectively.

Molly McAuliffe placed third on two head with 8.5, and intercollegiate roper, Lavada Tibbitts was 8.8 on two calves for fourth place. They won $122 and $61 respectively.

Of the 21 ropers, Molly won the first round with a 3.8, Chris McQueary of Three Forks won the second round with a 3.3, and Robyn Darvis, Bozeman, won the last round with a 4.9.

Average: 1. Francie Caufield, 27.2, $244; 2. Sally Jane Mosby, 44.0, $183; 3. Molly McAuliffe, 8.5 (2 head), $122; 4. Lavada Tibbitts, 8.8 (2 head), $61.

Junior Breakaway Roping Rule Clarified

With rodeo season under way, one of the questions that has come up is how many loops are allowed in the junior breakaway roping event.

It is not specifically set out in the rule book that two loops can be carried, however, it does state that in case rules are not covered in that section, refer to Ladies Breakaway Roping rules. LBAR rules state ONE LOOP. With this interpretation, until this can be addressed by the Board of Directors, ONE LOOP will be allowed in the junior breakaway roping event.

The rule book does not cover every instance, and by working together we can address these problems as they occur.

If you have any questions, please contact the NRA office, or the judging coordinators, Skeeter Nordahl at 475-3842, and Ron Shoen, 285-3354.

Rodeo World Learns to Come of Age

Some good comes of all bad.

The bad is that the animal extremists are attempting to stop the sport of rodeo.

The good is that the people in the rodeo world are being trained and are learning more and more about what is best for the animals they depend upon. Every western publication contains articles that assist the rodeo contestant to improve their abilities and to help keep their animals protected.

Some of the helpful reading contains information on vaccinations, summer horse care tips, prevention methods of colic, effective training techniques, how to modify undesirable behavior in horses, how to keep rodeo horses sound and healthy, information for prevention and diagnosing illness, and many others.

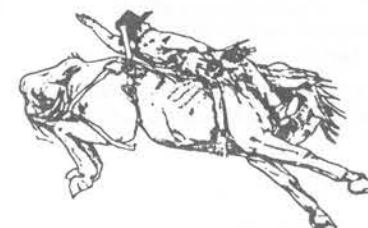

Further features inform the animal user about proper insect repellents and which snaps are the safest to use. There even is information on prosthetic eyes for horses who have lost an eye!

Some good comes of all bad. Rodeo animals are like part of a family. Their owners are continually learning to adjust and adapt to better handling procedures. Good comes from the publications that guide and direct the competitors. Paid protestors are picketing rodeos with little success because the love of rodeo is a positive reflection of American heritage. The good that is coming from animal extremists will far outweigh the bad.

Rodeo people have come of age and have come together to identify their principles.

Friends of Rodeo has been organized to preserve, protect and advance rodeo. If you have not joined or if you want more information about Friends of Rodeo, write or call, Karen Miller, R.R. 1, Box 2882, Absarokee, MT 59001, phone 406-328-4126.

Mark and Mary Salmond snagged this steer in a time of 9.2 seconds at the annual Choteau American Legion rodeo on July 4. The time stood up after the slack to place second in the rodeo. Note the packed bleachers; the covered grandstands were also packed. Another good year for Choteau.

Rodeo action at Wilsall got hot and heavy, featuring this spectacular show by Bob Schall

Even champions can get in trouble during a rodeo! This series of four action photos depicts a potential "wreck" encountered by NRA Bareback Riding Champion Bob Schall during the annual Wilsall rodeo in June. Check the photos beginning at the top left to right, then bottom left to right. First photo shows him in his usual winning form, second photo shows the horse going down, third photo shows pickup man Rodney Newman running in to help him as the horse has him pinned, and the fourth photo has him being pulled out from under the horse by Newman, Justin Hawks, and judges Rick Nordahl and Ron Shoen. Despite wearing a neck brace from a previous injury, Schall was not injured in this wreck, but he didn't move very fast afterwards.

Branding Time

By Gwen Petersen

Gwen Petersen is a syndicated humor writer based in Big Timber

By this time, ranchers have finished branding. In the quiet at dusk, if you listen carefully, you can almost catch a bit of ghostly leftover sounds and smells. The bawling of cows and calves, the sizzle and stink of hot irons on flesh, the whistle of lariats whipping the air, the laughter and cussing of men and women when a critter gets away or sprays a wrassler with a shower of scours.

Branding is hard, sweaty work, but it has its rewards. For some, the reward is the chance to partake in that ranch delicacy called — in my part of the country — mountain oysters.

OYSTER POWER

In springtime when a rancher brands
He has to call out all the hands.
They ride the range; they use their skills
To search the draws and scour the hills.
And when they've gathered all there are
A puncher starts a branding far'.
The dust swirls up, the lasso falls,
A scared bull calf cuts loose and bawls.
The doggie's stretched upon his side
A red-hot iron burns his hide.
His ears are notched or else tattooed,
The poor li'l critter comes unglued
He loses his horns to a dehorn knife.
What a heckuva way to start a life.
But one last insult's left in store —

He's about to lose his bullish core.
Clipped off by some snooze-chewin' man,
His private parts are saved in a can.
These oysters firmly joined to groins
Are prized as much as golden coins.
And after branding, crisply fried,
The mountain oysters are served with pride.
For like the oysters in the oceans
They give a cowboy lovin' notions.
And when he meets a gal in town
Well, shucks, cain't keep that feller down.
Cuz he's got urgins strong and stout
And oyster power to carry them out.
Now I've known cowboys — quite a few —
And near as I can tell — it's true.

"100 Years of Pulling Together"

By Stan Steen

Manager, Central Montana Fair

"100 Years of Pulling Together" is the theme for the Centennial Celebration of the Central Montana Fair at Lewistown July 26 - 31.

The 1993 will prove to be the biggest and best ever with top-of-the-line concerts, a bigger than ever N.R.A. Championship Rodeo, Demolition Derby, Inland Empire Carnival, nearly 100 commercial booths, over 100 educational displays, five big free stage acts, the biggest open horse show in Montana, livestock shows and sales, with half a hundred beautiful acres of lawn and trees to enjoy it all on.

Pam Tillis and Chris LeDoux start it all off with a big Pre-Fair Concert, Saturday, July 24, with two shows at 7 p.m. and 9 p.m. Don's Store in Lewistown sponsors that show. Wednesday, July 28, features mega stars, Brooks and Dunn, with special guest, Shawn Camp; one show only at 8 p.m. The Lewistown

News Argus sponsors that super concert for the second year in a row.

N.R.A. cowboys and cowgirls need to be aware there have been a lot of construction on the grounds and parking areas have been changed in some areas.

The white race track fence has been removed and a new security fence installed. Half of that infield area will now be used for public parking and half for cowboys. Please park your trailers in an orderly fashion so all can be accommodated. Watch for pedestrians as they may be in your parking area. There will be no trailers or vehicles inside the security fence. There will be a walk through gate for contestants and their families only. This will save you the outside gate charge. We'll give this a one year trial, but if it gets abused, it will become a contestant only gate.

We're looking forward to serving you at the Central Montana Fair!!

CNFR completes annual Bozeman run

The College National Finals completed its annual run in Bozeman June 15-20, and a record 29,000 fans were in attendance at the Brick Breeden Fieldhouse on the campus of Montana State University for the week-long run of the rodeo.

The final short go-around was held on Sunday, June 20, and a "sudden death" format was used to crown the national champions. TNN will televise this short go-around on July 3, 4, and 5. Watch your local listings for time and further information.

The Big Sky Region of the National Intercollegiate Rodeo Association was represented at the CNFR by the top two place finishers of the region, both in individual events, and by college or university. Montana State University and Western Montana College both sent teams.

Western Montana College finished in 11th place in the national standings, while the MSU men failed to place in the top 15. The Montana State women's team finished third, and the Western Montana College women finished 11th.

Individually, Jason Jackson of MSU finished seventh in the bareback riding standings.

Tori Woodard of Miles Community College split third place in the second go-around of the goat tying; Kelly Stevens of MSU was second in the short go and second in the national standings; Kristi Spring of Montana State finished fifth in the national standings of the goat tying.

Heather Hart of Western Montana College split third in the first go of the breakaway roping; ReAnn Berzel of Dawson split third in the second go of the breakaway roping, and Tanya Hussey of Western Montana College finished tenth in the national standings.

In the saddle bronc riding, Jess Martin of Western Montana College won the first go-around, second in the second go, and ended up seventh in the national standings.

Shane Motichka of Western Montana College was sixth in the national bull riding standings.

The Northern Rodeo Association extends its congratulations to these college cowboys.

Arena Dust

Noticeably married: Stacey Ellis of Broadus and B Ereaux of Malta.

Planning a Sept. 25 wedding are Rhonda Nevala and Rob Kountz.

Planning an Aug. 28 wedding are Dusty Cray and Danelle Weist.

Blair Barthelmess reports that the pigs at her place the grizzly bear likes so much are part hers, not just Bryan's. By the way, the bear made his way back the many miles from the Sun River Game Range to the Lincoln area, back to the Barthelmess pigs. He just loves their feed!

On the injured list:

Rob Kountz "blew out" his hamstring muscle at Absarokee, and reportedly will be laid up for at least six months. He says he has opted not to have surgery, and will let the muscle heal on its own.

Paul Solberg was bucked off on the back of his neck during the Broken Horn Stampede at Absarokee and broke seven vertebrae. Miraculously, his spinal cord was not injured and he will recover, even though it means a long time in a body cast and a brace. Paul is the saddle bronc riding director in the NRA.

You may find this hard to believe, but bareback rider Lane Yeager popped the question to his honey, Beverly Williams. She even has a ring, and says October is the month!

Also planning a fall wedding are Shirley Parker and Pat Howie.

The new voice you hear on the phone at the NRA office is June Pasha, who is spending her summer off from being a school teacher, helping Jann out during the busy summer rodeo season.

And speaking of the Pashas, June's mom, Scooter, is the new secretary for the Montana High School Rodeo Association. She takes Teri Jo Lyman's place. Dave Viotor succeeded Skip Joseph in the president's position.

Prep cowpokes headed for nationals

HAVRE — Wendy Badgett of Ashland captured her third straight year-end all-around cowgirl title here June 24, 25, 26 and 27. The top four finishers in each event earned the right to compete at the national finals scheduled July 25-31 in Gillette, Wyo. Placers five through eight qualified for the Silver State International Rodeo in Fallon, Nev., July 1-4.

Badgett accumulated 4,554.965 points during the 1992-93 high school season to easily capture her third consecutive all-around crown.

In addition, she won the year-end pole bending title, was second in girl's cow cutting, and combined with Judd Long of Wolf Point for third in team roping.

At the state rodeo, Badgett won the pole bending average and was second in girl's cow cutting.

The all-around cowgirl title at the rodeo went to Jill Ferdina of Wolf Point, who also won the barrel racing average.

Jess Matt of Ethridge won the year-end all-around cowboy crown with 3,301.88 points. He finished third in bareback riding for the season and fourth in the average for the event at the state rodeo.

The all-around cowboy title at the rodeo went to Doug Leeds of Havre who won the bareback riding average.

BEST FOR LAST

WOW! The Women of Wilsall entertained during the 1993 Wilsall with an "Ostrich Drill Team," which proved to be comical as well as entertaining. The WOW also manned the concession stand at Wilsall, and dished out delicious, juicy "rodeo burgers," along with such delicacies as iced tea and lemonade. The tiny community of Wilsall boasts of this active civic organization, WOW, in a manner that most communities that size can only dream.
