The latest on ladies events in WSS

The White Sulphur Springs Rodeo Committee and the MBRA met to work out a workable compromise to those involved directly and indirectly with the MBRA Finals.

The decision was made to give those selecting the NRA-only purse one run in a performance; those selecting the MBRA purse will get two runs (one run each performance).

To assist the committee and their cuttata all ladies barrels and breakaway contestants will be in a performance (no LBAR or barrels in slack).

All ladies are asked to please ride in the arena during the cuttata just prior to the rodeo.

The MBRA has decided to issue MBRA permits at a cost of $15. This allows you to run at the extra money but would not be eligible for yearend awards. Eligibility for yearend awards requires membership two years prior to finals.

Junior events at Askins, Aug. 18

Junior events during the Billings Fair will be on Aug. 18 at 8 a.m. in the Jerry Askin Arena in Laurel. Entry fees are $20 with $100 per event added. Junior breakaway will have one steer for each entry. Jerry Askins has donated his arena.

The added money is donated by Bud and Bert Roberts, of Ballantine; Jolene and Cody Taylor, of Miles City; Phillip and Deb Fleming, of Ismay, and Corral West Ranchwear in the Billings Heights.

An open and matched team roping will be in the same location following the junior events. (10 a.m.)

DIRECTIONS: Get off Interstate 90 at Laurel (Refinery) exit. Go under railroad underpass and turn left at the 4-way light. Three miles on highway 10 and turn north 1/4 mile. Permanent signs mark the way to Askin arena.

Rule: timers paid $35 per perf

Contractors and Rodeo Committeemen:

With so much money on the line at these rodeos, timers are a very important part of the final result. Good timers don't decide first place checks, contestants do. However, poor timers may negatively influence first placings.

To ensure that quality timers are paid appropriately, the NRA Board of Directors voted at the February Board meeting to pay NRA card-carrying timers a minimum of $35 per performance. NRA officials ask that those responsible adhere to the rule so an integral part of your rodeo is properly paid!

Board meeting, Friday Aug. 17

Summer Board of Directors Meeting will be held Friday, Aug. 17 at 1 p.m. in the Skybridge Room of the Billings Sheraton Hotel.

Skybridge Room is located on the second floor of the Sheraton and is next to the skybridge connecting the Sheraton and the parking garage.

If you have an agenda item you would like added, please call the NRA office, 406-252-1122.

Board meetings are open meetings and all NRA contestants in Billings for the MontanaFair are encouraged to attend the meetings.

Horse enthusiasts add full slate of events to MontanaFair

A new attraction to MontanaFair is the Horse Country Review, an exhibit and demonstration located across from the barns adjacent to the Show Tent.

All week Horse Council of South Central Montana will sponsor activities featuring an array of horse breeds (a different breed featured every day), commercial exhibits and varied demonstrations.

The Thoroughbred will premier the equine group Saturday, Aug. 11. Demonstrations on preparing a horse for a race, jumping, dressage and barrel racing will be given.

Sunday Appaloosa Day, an Appy in full Indian dress riding tack will be on display. Featured demonstrations with these hardy, Western, mottled horses will be given on dressage, reining and driving.

Morgan, Tennessee Walker, and Peruvian Pasos are featured Monday, Aug. 13. A unique saddle and tack Peruvian Paso costume will be demonstrated as well as a gaited horse and dressage to music.

Tuesday the Big Sky Dressage and the Pony Club of America will demonstrate good and poor riding positions for dressage, equitation and jumping as well as show tips.

Montana's favorite, Quarter-horse Day, will be Wednesday, Aug. 15.

Demonstrations will be given on equine dentistry, western riding, reining to music, trail horse obstacles as well as farriering.

A "hog heaven" day for the young, Thursday, Aug. 16 is Rodeo, Big Sky Cutting and Montana Reining Horse Day with cutting and reining demos.

Northern Rodeo Association contestants will be on hand to sign autographs, and Corral West Ranch Wear is sponsoring a Stick Horse Rodeo for children eight and under from 4 to 6 p.m.

Children are asked to bring "ole broomtail" and dress western to enter the barrel racing, and calf and steer roping events.

A fun chance for youngsters to meet real cowboys, cowgirls and rodeo clowns, the Stick Horse Rodeo will be a delightful treat for adults too.

Friday is Paint horse and Buggy horse day. A "how to" harness a horse demonstration will be given as well as demonstrations on equine dentistry and driving.

The speedy Arabian horse wraps up the week Saturday, Aug. 18. Arabian costuming, saddle seat and versatility will be demonstrated.

The best for last

If you've been wondering was the ready-to-wear world is showing in the Summerwear 1990, you should have been at the Kerr Country Rodeo in Polson. Among those showing neon color was NRA's own Janie Carlson who appears to be enjoying the water skiing events at Polson! (Photo by Jeanne Carpenter.)
