SWEEPSTAKES FOR 1995 HAS THREE WINNERS

by Vance Ruff

The 1995 "Instant Rancher Sweepstakes" now has three winners, Dean McIntyre, Absarokee; Deb McKay, Custer; Jack Stensland, Wolf Point.

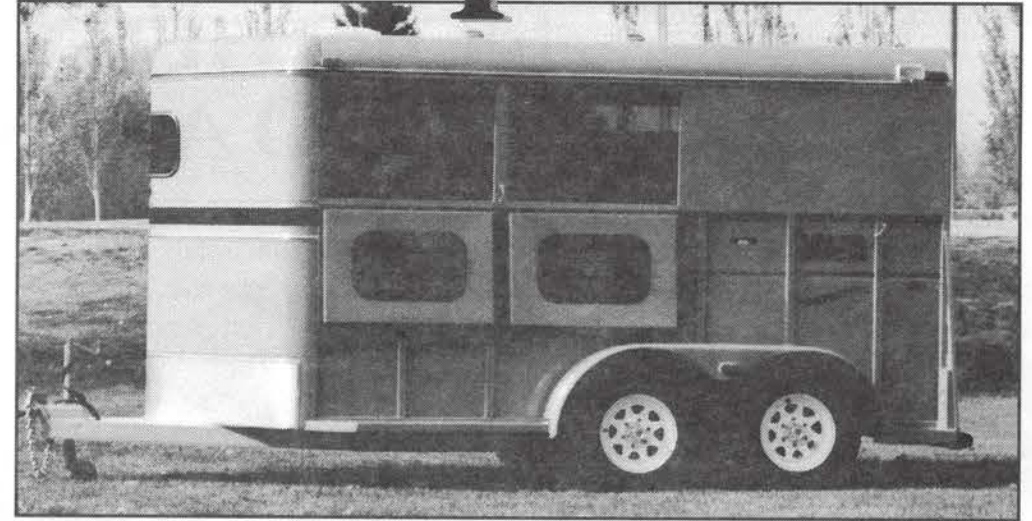

There are still eight more drawings, three of which are Grand Prize drawings. If you have not bought your ticket do so...if you are selling tickets and still have some left, SELL THEM!

The sweepstakes is set up to increase the added money for the NRA Finals. All the money made from the fund raiser goes toward the added money. Having the sweepstakes break even every year defeats the purpose. So invest a little time and sell a few tickets and the NRA Finals will make the year all worth while.

If you have any questions on purchasing or selling tickets, please contact the NRA office or Vance Ruff.

Competitor

Just as the Competitors in the NRA are tough and durable, so are Logan Coach trailers. Competitor bumper pull and goose-neck trailers meet the special needs of rodeo competitors and stockmen alike.

The Competitor is a fully enclosed, slant load trailer built with electro-galvanized sheet metal and galvanized structural tubing. It features drop-down feed doors, plexiglass, plush padding and sturdy single wall construction.

There are also many options available including a spacious rear tack.

Logan Coach is the official trailer of the United States

Team Roping Championships and a proud, new sponsor of the Northern Rodeo Association.

CHATting WITH CHUCK ABOUT SPORTS MEDICINE...

by Chuck Karnop,
Montana State University, Bobcat Athletics

At this point in a season, some rodeo contestants become less happy with their sport and thus less positive in their outlook and approach. One of many reasons for this is referred to as staleness, burnout, or overreaching. The result decrease in focus and level of self-confidence leads to subpar performance and an increased risk of injury.

The following list of signs and symptoms is not all-inclusive, but includes some that you might notice early on:

1. Do not crave your event(s) as much - less enthusiastic and competitive.
2. "Not a lot of fun to be around" - grouchy, get made more easily and quicker.
3. "Bad luck" attitude - wasting stock.
4. "The harder I try, the worse it gets."
5. Tired a lot; but don't sleep well - weary.
6. Weight loss; but a poor appetite.
7. Stiff and sore when you get up in A.M. without a good reason.
8. You feel pressured; on edge, uptight.

The remedy may be easy to attain. Those who have good emotional control may really and reverse the situation by merely recognizing their problem. For others, they may need to take some practice time off, not enter as many, or perhaps take an entire weekend off. Recreate, fish, just stay at home; whatever is your idea of really kicking back.

If you determine that your problem is largely in your head - reprogram - control your situation. Don't accept your situation controlling how you present. Spend time with and talk to those you like and admire; find out how they handle it, in that most who have competed over time have had some problems with it.

The bottom line; however, is that you need to change the course of this progressive malady by taking charge in a positive manner. Self-talk may help, but keep it positive - there is no benefit to be gained by whipping-up on one's self. Take care of yourself!

Little Belt Cowboys Gets Family Involved In Rodeo

by Karen Miller, staff writer

We wanted to get the family back in the sport of rodeo," says Clancy Sivertson, President of the Little Belt Cowboys Association. "We have a PRCA rodeo in the spring; but when we had an NRA rodeo in the past, more families would come to watch the kids and the ladies events," says Sivertson. Consequently, there will be an NRA sanctioned rodeo in Belt August 19-20. Jacobs Livestock Rodeos will be producing the rodeo.

This rodeo committee gets entire families actively involved with all aspects of the work. The women and kids helped cut pipe for the new pens, they hauled pipe and supplies, and even set posts. Jim and Liz Urich, Greg and Francie Leritz, and Clancy and his wife Lori are a few of the families who make things happen. The philosophy of the club is to keep the kids busy so they stay out of trouble and learn civic responsibility.

Besides new pipe pens, the committee has a new section of bleachers. The Belt Fire Department will handle the concessions, and there will be a dance at the pavilion with a live band after the 6:30 p.m. Saturday performance.

"We like the grandparents coming to watch their grandkids and their other relatives compete," says Sivertson.

This former coal mining town had NCMRA rodeos in the past during the Connie Cox era, about 1956.

The NRA is happy that this rodeo has been revitalized and are pleased that the Little Belt Cowboys Association appreciates family rodeo.

COORS AND RODEO

Rodeos bring excitement and thrills to small towns and big cities. They create a yearning in the young cowboy's heart that won't cease till he rides his first bronc, ropes his first calf. Offering a glimpse into America's past, rodeo attracts the young at heart, the old of spirit.

For years, Original Coors, The Rocky Mountain Legend, has been a proud supporter of American rodeo. For over 100 years, Original Coors has been brewing the finest tasting beer in the West. Our commitment to quality has made Original Coors the first choice in beers... from cafes in Manhattan to campfires in Montana. The clean, smooth taste of Original Coors and the thrill of the rodeo—two great American legends.

HOW TO ENTER NRA RODEOS THROUGH BIG SKY RODEO CENTRAL ENTRY DIAL 406-428-2205

Entries will be open from 10 a.m. to 6:30 p.m. every Monday. Call backs will be Tuesday from 12 noon to 6:30 p.m. unless otherwise advertised. Charge is $3.50

Give the following information when entering a rodeo:

1. Name of rodeo
2. Your NRA card number
3. Your name
4. The event or events you wish to enter
5. Preferences you have on which performance you wish to work.
6. Name of buddy or buddies — two per event, six total.
7. If multi-rodeo weekend, give information for each rodeo you wish to enter.
8. Call back Tuesday between 12 noon and 6:30 p.m. (unless otherwise advertised) to find out when you are up.

9. Keep track of the confirmation number the operator gives you, both on entering the rodeo and calling back. Every conversation, both entries and call backs, is recorded on tape, and each person calling is given a verification number for that conversation. YOU MUST HAVE THIS VERIFICATION NUMBER IF THERE ARE ANY QUESTIONS REGARDING YOUR ENTRY OR CALL BACK.

ANY CONTESTANT WHO DRAWS OUT OF A RODEO AFTER RECEIVING HIS FIRST PREFERENCE OF PERFORMANCES AT A GIVEN RODEO OR RODEOS WILL BE FINED $20 PER INFRACTION.

Late call back number is 428-2398. If you have to use the late call back number, you will be charged an additional $2.50, so please call during regular hours.

Trade-outs and Turnouts

All NRA rodeos are trade-out rodeos unless advertised as "NO TRADE OUTS."

Trades: A contestant may trade positions/performance of competition with another contestant at anytime after entries close, provided it is before the draw for that event.

If a trade is completed before callbacks close, trades are handled through central entry and may continue to be handled up until 10 a.m. the day following callbacks.

After 10 a.m. the day after callbacks, all trades are handled through the NRA office.

Both parties involved in the trade must call the NRA office and confirm the trade.

Trades can be made at the rodeo upon consent of both parties involved before the draw in that event. Both judges and rodeo secretary must be notified of trade by both parties.

Note: a new rule passed at April 1992 board meeting states timed-event draw must be made in presence of the rodeo secretary and can be made a minimum of two hours before the performance. We bring this to your attention so contestants plan to make trades earlier.

Turnouts: As stated in the rule book, if a contestant turns out at a rodeo, the fine will be equal to the entry fees. The NRA has rules which can soften the blow of an expensive turnout.

1. Notified turnout: If you know before 3 p.m. the last working day before the first performance of a rodeo that you will not be competing at that rodeo, call the NRA office. You will be responsible for your entry fees plus a $20 fine. The fine is $20 (plus all entry fees) no matter how many events you are entered in. You must have your entry fees included in the payoff for that rodeo in which you will not be competing, so alternative ways to get your fees to the rodeo need to be considered.

2. If it is too late to notify, you can find someone who will pay your fees at the rodeo for you and notify the secretary, judge, and contractor that you will not be there, your fine is half your entry fee (plus your entry fee).

Contractors, judges, secretaries, spectators, announcer and fellow contestants appreciate knowing if you will not be there, thus an animal will not be drawn and this will eliminate unnecessary turnouts.

FRIENDS OF RODEO NEEDS YOU MORE!

We cannot give up easily and unless we fight the animal extremists as a unified group, we will not be very effective.
